The Department of Senior Services provides and coordinates numerous services and sponsors many activities for senior citizens.

What is the ADRC?

ADRC (Aging and Disability Resource Connection) is a program to connect seniors age 60 and older, and people with physical disabilities 18 years of age and older with the services they need to continue living independently in the community for as long as possible.

Any information given to staff members is kept completely confidential. You can depend on immediate help and follow through on your problems from our trained staff. We help you to find the right services and supports to meet your needs.
